

CELL

Examples of Print Materials

Store flyers	Junk mail	Class news
Signs	Posters	Class schedules
Phone books	Calendars	Cookbooks
Labels	Sign-in sheets	Recipe cards
Alphabet posters	Sign-up sheets	Coupons
Charts	Job charts	Tickets
Menus	Daily schedules	Library cards

Notes

- A common sign used in the classroom is a stop sign on doors
- Labels can be everywhere including furniture, materials and toys, learning centers, shelves, containers, name labels on attendance form, cubbies, helper board, hooks, center tags
- When labeling, you can use a picture of the item and the word so children start to make the connection between print and the object and the meaning of the print

CELL

Examples of Reading Materials

Books	Catalogs	Junk mail
Magazines	Children's dictionaries	Store flyers
Pamphlets	Atlases	Menus
Recipes	Newspapers	Class schedules

Notes

- There are many types of books that can be used including wordless, picture books, chapter books, child-created, pop-up , nursery rhymes, poetry, informational, language play books (e.g., those with a repetitive theme), and alphabet books

CELL

Examples of Writing Materials

Utensils

Pencils
Markers
Crayons
Paint brushes and paint
Dry erase markers
Chalk
Letter stamps
Shape sponges

Surfaces

Different types of paper
Easel
Dry erase board
Chalkboard
Ink pads
Pavement
Envelopes

CELL

Examples of Other Materials to Support Literacy Learning

Electronic Materials

CD players
Headphones
Music and Books on CD
Computers with keyboards

Props

Felt board with flannel story pieces
Magnetic board with magnetic letters
Modeling clay or dough
Alphabet blocks
Dolls
Puppets
Dress-up clothes
Empty containers with labels/logos
Stamps
Clipboards
Tape
Stapler
Paper clips
Hole punch
Ruler
Scissors
Glue
Pencil sharpener