Let your preschooler’s everyday activities POP with literacy-learning POWER!

BATH TIME

Together with your child, name and point to body parts.

Sing songs and do fingerplays about bath time or your child’s interests. “Rub-a-dub-dub, three men in a tub....”

Point to and read the words “hot” and “cold” on the water taps.

Look at waterproof bath time books together.

Fill and pour water from empty shampoo bottles. Point to the words and letters on the empty bottles.
