Let your preschooler’s everyday activities with literacy-learning POWER!

OUTDOOR FUN

Let your child draw or write using sidewalk chalk.

Sit on a comfy blanket or chair outside and read some of your child’s favorite stories.

Use traffic signs with your child for toy trucks and cars to follow in the grass.

Draw a treasure map to locate items buried in a sandbox or in a pile of autumn leaves.

Play outdoor games such as “Simon Says” and “Ring Around the Rosie.”

Everyday literacy learning opportunities from the Center for Early Literacy Learning (www.earlyliteracylearning.org)

Copyright © 2012. Orelena Hawks Puckett Institute.